

WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING?

Hey guys!

As usual we have been busy busy busy the last few months!

We are super excited to be back in the office and be running programs face to face again!

Online Scavenger Hunt

1
Who are the Traditional Custodians of the land you live on?

2
Create your own Acknowledgment of Country

3

4
What are the colours of the Aboriginal flag? What do these colours represent?

5
Yagan Square is a popular attraction in Perth. Who was Yagan?

6
What Noongar Season were you born in?

7
Take a photo or draw something that represents the season you were born in.

8
What does the name 'Yorganop' mean?

9
How many different language groups are in Noongar Country?

ONLINE CONNECTION EVENTS + SPEAK UP!

During our lockdown we ran a bunch of online Connection activities. This was a huge change for us because usually we would have about 100 people at a venue! But we had a lot of fun encouraging young people to make art and do scavenger hunts from home!

We also teamed up with Yorganop for an online Connection event and did some super fun cultural activities! We learned some new Noongar words, and young people sent in some beautiful art works.

You can give the online Scavenger Hunt a go at home if you like! (see left).

We also worked super hard running Speak Up Levels 2 and 3 online! So we have some awesome new Young Consultants graduating very soon! We can't wait to see them do amazing things!

STAFF PROFILE

We are sad to see Elly leave CREATE and move on to a new adventure where she will be running some amazing new programs. But she will be missed a lot by our young people and staff! Thanks for all of your amazing work Elly and all the best in your new venture.

YAGS

During our lockdown we ran a total of seven Youth Advisory Groups in three months! Because we were online it meant we could do a YAG every two weeks!

We had some amazing circus performers from Circus WA come online and teach us some juggling and headstands!

We also had Justin from Djurandi Dreaming jump online and have some really important conversations about culture, and tell some beautiful Dreamtime stories.

Headspace and Crossroads Transitional Support Service also jumped online with us and told us all about the awesome programs they are running!

Thanks to everyone who donated their time to connect with us over the lockdown!

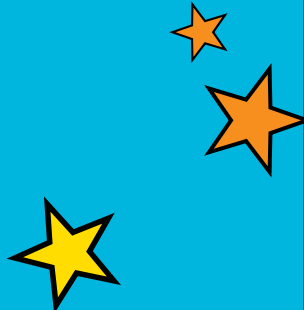

IT REALLY MAKES A DIFFERENCE WHEN...

Check out some of the advice (above) that our young people had to give to case workers during one of our online YAGs!

It really makes a difference when...

- I get a lot of attention from my caseworker (M, 16)
 - Caseworkers make time for me (F, 19)
 - When they care (F, 23)
 - They listen, praise me, and tell me I'm doing a good job (F, 25)
 - My case manager gets to know me and actually care and wants the best for me and my future (F, 20)

WHAT'S YOUR CREATIVE OUTLET?

In our craft YAG online, we had craft packs delivered to young people's doors and chatted about what people's different creative outlets were. This is what they said:

- "Cooking" (F, 25)
- "Doing lego" (M, 16)
- "I sing and I also paint" (F, 20)
- "To get my creative side I like to get paints and a paint board and just splat them" (F, 18)
- "I like drawing" (M, 12)
- "I do art in my classes and do canvassing."
- "I'm doing scrapbooking" (F, 25)
- "I tried scrap booking but it didn't work out" (F, 20)
- "My Cw got me to do an identity book, when I was close to 18... I loved it. It made me look deep into myself to look into who I thought I was and what was important to me and got to do it in a creative outlet like this" (F, 20)
