Hi clubCREATE-ers!

Well, it's almost a wrap on 2022 and what a year it has been! Life has returned to somewhat 'normal' but not without its challenges. As we move into the holiday period, we know this can be tough for some. We hope you find the article by Psychologist Gregory Nicolau on his '5 Tips to get your holidays off to a good start' helpful.

Also, in this edition we give you an update on our #makeit21 campaign, meet Stef from our Leadership Committee team, explain what a Position Paper is and so much more. Don't forget to enter the awesome competitions for your chance to win some vouchers (perfect timing for Christmas!).

We hope you take some value from this edition, and feel positively about the year ahead. Every day I am amazed by your strength, resilience and passion to advocate for change. We can't wait to see you in the new year and continue to create a better life for kids in care - together!

Happy reading,

IN THE LOOP

World Care Day

World Care Day on the 17th February is the world's biggest celebration of children who grow up in care. The theme for 2023 is 'Don't Judge a Book by Its Cover, Embrace our Stories Instead!' Children and young people are strong, resilient and more than just their care experience! This Care Day, everyone has the chance to get vocal, get social, or to get together in celebration of your story. #worldcareday2023

Hour of Power

The CREATE team in Victoria ran an Hour of Power (HOP) event in October in the lead up to the state election. This town hall style event gives young people with a care experience a chance to speak directly to decision makers and politicians in the out-of-home care sector. People such as the Minister for Child Protection Colin Brooks, Shadow Minister for Child Protection Matthew Bach, Leader of the Reason Party Fiona Patten, and Greens Leader Samantha Ratnam, alongside Commissioner for Children and Young People Liana Buchanan and Commissioner for Aboriginal Children and Young People Meena Singh were present at the HOP. Well done to all the young people asking the hard questions and pushing the politicians to ensure their policies and commitments will improve the lives of young people in care.

Child Protection Week Wrap up

Each year National Child Protection Week aims to engage, educate and empower Australians to understand the complexity of child abuse and neglect and work together to prevent it. The 2022 theme was 'every child, in every community, needs a fair go'. CREATE had an action packed week across Australia in honor of National Child Protection Week. We had fancy award dinners, fun Connection events, art competitions and more!

Congratulations to CREATE's own Fabian, who won the Voice of Children and Young People Award at the South Australian Child Protection Awards and to the CREATE led Minister Youth Advisory Group (MYAG) for winning the Children and Youth Empowerment Award from the Victorian Commission for Children and Young People. Check out the wrap up blog on our website for all the details.

SAY HELLO TO LEADERSHIP COMMITTEE MEMBER STEF!

What do you love about working for CREATE?

Where do I start?! I think having worked at CREATE for 10 years this year demonstrates my passion and commitment to this organisation. I absolutely love working here and I am just so amazed every day by all your wonderful stories, and love showcasing them to our audience, supporters, the media and general public. I also love the CREATE Team – we are all so passionate about the work that we do and in particular our Head Honcho Jacqui Reed – she is a true leader and I am inspired by her commitment to you all!

What do you like doing when you are not at work?

I love spending time with my family and friends as they make my heart happy. We live by the beach so we love to ride our bikes to the beach as a family and spend time in the ocean. We are also a camping family so we love nothing more than heading to our favourite camping spots with a big group of mates to spend time in nature relaxing. We love going on hikes also and our dream is to take our boys to Tasmania when they are old enough to do the Overland Track all together. My husband and I did part of it years ago and it was epic!

What is something a little wacky about yourself?

I am a keen collector of vintage Harley Davidson t-shirts (even though I don't own a Harley!) I love discovering all the old designs and prints, where they originated from, their individual history and the worn in look of them. They're just so comfy to wear and I love wearing them oversized.

Hey to all you rad club-CREATE members! My name is Stef and I live in Sydney on the land of the Eora Nation. I am a proud mumma of two wild and super cute little boys who keep me very busy but bring me so much joy.

What do you do at CREATE Foundation?

I lead the Marketing and Communications team here at CREATE. I reckon I have the best job ever as I get to do so much cool creative stuff every day and get to shine a light on all you amazing children and young people. My job is varied and I get to oversee our websites, social media and all of our marketing materials such as flyers, posters and invites. I also get to work on our Voices in Action conferences which happen every 2 years. Fun fact – I have been a part of organising and attending every single one of our conferences since the first one in Canberra back in 2013! The Voices in Action conferences are a highlight for me so I recommend you apply for a grant to attend our next one in Adelaide in 2024 if you haven't been to one of these inspiring events.

BIG NEWS ON #MAKEIT21

CREATE have been fiercely advocating for years to #makeit21 to ensure all young people have extended support beyond 18. This is such an important time in a young person's life and having those extra few years of support to help young people learn to 'adult' is critical. With the QLD government recently announcing extending support to 21 all eyes were on NSW to #makeit21 as they remained the last state to commit to this support.

In June this year CREATE launched our #itsyourturnNSW #makeit21 campaign to put pressure on the NSW government to listen to the voices of young people who were urging the government to commit to extending support. We are so pleased that your voices were finally heard and on Sunday 6th November the NSW government officially announced that they are committing to this support! CREATE were there to witness this historic event which means all young people now across Australia are able to access supports to 21! Big snaps to Riki, our Young Consultant, who spoke to the media at the media announcement and thanks to each and every one of you who spoke up to have your voices heard #yousaiditwedidit

To find out more about this support you can head to the FACS website, call DCJ Care Leavers Line on 1800 994 686 or email careleaversline@facs.nsw.gov.au

RAISE THE AGE CAMPAIGN

Shockingly, it is still a reality that children, as young as 10, may be strip searched, arrested and incarcerated - with First Nations young people disproportionately impacted.

At 10, children do not understand the consequences of their behaviour or to comprehend the "justice system". Allowing children as young as 10 to be imprisoned in this way increases the likelihood that they will go on to offend more seriously as they become older.

Recently, Young Consultant Leilani participated on the panel about 'Raising the age: transforming youth justice' at the QCOSS Conference. Here is what she had to say!

"Continuing to penalise young people for committing crimes, without first addressing the reason behind why they are committing crimes, will do little to nothing in preventing further recidivism."

Slapping a young person with a fine, and community service for theft, is not going to address the fact they stole to provide for their family, because their family lives below the poverty line. Holding young people in watch houses, or preventing them from accessing bail is not going to address the fact that they have nowhere to sleep at night."

We are so proud of you, Leilani, for using your voice and lived experience to help change the system! Leilani has been a Young Consultant with CREATE since 2015 and has contributed to several policy initiatives through advocacy.

To become a Young Consultant get in touch with your state team to do Speak Up Training! It's all about using your voice and experiences to help us change the care system!

#SNAPTHATSTIGMA

CREATE Young Consultant Jessica is one of our biggest supporters in the Northern Territory!

You will always find a huge smile on her face and a “can do attitude” driving her to step out of her comfort zone to come along to our YAG’s, Speak Up and CREATE Your Future workshops. Jessica is a young Gurindji woman who was born deaf and came into care when she was very young. She is the oldest of 6 siblings and takes her role as big sister seriously, always looking out for her brothers and sisters as well as her little nephew. Even breaking her leg earlier this year didn’t stop Jess from attending CREATE activities as it is often a chance for her to catch up with family. When we asked Jess about how she felt about her time with CREATE she said;

“CREATE is good fun. Meet new friends. Teach me how to live independent skills. Thank you. Lots of fun years.”

ANNUAL REVIEW OUT NOW!

What’s an Annual Review?

An Annual Review is a rather big document that highlights everything CREATE Foundation has been up to in the last year. It’s like our Instagram Highlight reel. We have just released our new 2021-2022 Annual Review. If you would like to check it out, visit the CREATE website.

CHECK OUT SOME OF THE HIGHLIGHTS!

WHAT IS A POSITION PAPER?

A huge part of CREATE's work is our research and advocacy, which is largely underpinned by our Position Papers.

They are some of the most important documents in our organisation because they help us remain focussed on what's most important for young people in Australia with a care experience. We've just recently published a newly written Position Paper on the overrepresentation of young first nations people in out-of-home care.

Here are some of the key pieces of information from that Position Paper!

5.2% of all young people in Australia are First Nations however 42% of all young people in care in Australia are First Nations. 1 in 20 versus 8 in 20 – a huge increase. In CREATE's study from 2018, First Nations young people reported having more placements and more instability in their placements than non-Indigenous people in care.

Actions that can be taken to improve this situation are:

- Invest in community led decision making
- Improve support programs for First Nations families so fewer young people get taken away from their families

You can read the full Position Paper on our website!

FROM SURVIVING TO THRIVING IN THE HOLIDAYS

OK, you've probably been told most of your life that holidays are good for you and that we should have lots of them. Well, I am here to tell you that's true, maybe, sort of, sometimes.

You see holidays mean different things to different people. Some people love the break from study or work, others hate the lack of routine, knowing what's going to happen when. Of course, holidays at the end of the year are seen as a time to catch up with family and friends. But what if being with family or friends is a bit tough, or even worse you can't see them when others are seeing theirs?

My 5 Tips to get you from surviving to thriving through the holiday break.

Tip 1: There is no right or wrong way to do holidays. There's just your way and that way is OK.

Tip 2: Best not to put pressure on yourself with big expectations. Go with the flow, wherever that flow takes you, allow yourself to enjoy the ride.

Tip 3: If you enjoy routine, knowing what's going to happen each day, then grab a calendar or a journal and plan your days, write a list of what you would like to do first and then pop them in your calendar.

Tip 4: If you are not into routines, ignore Tip 3, and chill. It is OK to do nothing, or just make it up as you go. Find your own rhythm and dance to that. See Tip 2.

Tip 5: Always return to Tip 1, if you are feeling a bit lost or stressed, take some pressure off, with holidays there are no rules, just time for yourself to do with it whatever you want to.

Bonus Tip: Families and friends, look they can bring us mixed feelings, in fact some feelings that we might not like. The thing with feelings, rather than shut them down let them flow through you, they will move on and make way for another feeling. That's the thing about feelings; they come and go, all feelings. And of course, surround yourself with the people that make you shine and smile, and don't be afraid to reach out and have a yarn or a chat with the ones that make you feel safe.

That's it, they're my tips, get out there and holiday well, whatever that means to you.

NSW ROUND UP

What's been happening?

Make it 21

The New South Wales Government has agreed to #makeit21! Here in New South Wales we have been working tirelessly to achieve this and have been pushing hard our #itsyourturnNSW #makeit21 campaign. Our Young Consultants did a brilliant job advocating for this by attending meetings with Minister Natasha MacLaren-Jones and other key decision makers in the department and doing media articles to make this happen. Congratulations to everyone involved, a great example of #yousaiditwedidit

We wouldn't be able to do any of this if it wasn't for your powerful voices so a big THANK YOU and like Dr Seuss says 'let's open our mouths, for every voice counts!'

Staff Update

Brianna, one of our Community Facilitators, has moved on to a different role. We wish her all the best in her new endeavours and we are on the lookout for someone to join the CREATE team.

Connection Events

COVID had really been cramping our style but we finally got a chance to travel and headed to Port Macquarie. It was an absolute delight getting to explore Billabong zoo with our members there and we are hoping to do this more often, so watch this space for where we'll be next. We also got a chance to bring back one of our most popular events - cruising around Sydney Harbour and what a turnout! It is always such a highlight when we get to connect and have fun in person and we're planning something extra special for Christmas.

NT ROUND UP

What's been happening?

Territory Families Housing and Communities Annual Round Table

This year we had 14 amazing Young Consultants attend our annual Round Table lending their voices and experiences to the discussions around Leaving Care and Youth Mental Health. They met with Executives and decision makers from TFHC and James from The Office of the Children's Commissioner. There was a beautiful Welcome to Country from Larrakia woman Mary Williams followed by our own CEO Jacqui Reed who highlighted the importance of hearing the wisdom of young people when developing policies and finding solutions to issues facing them. Here are some responses young people gave around what do you need to best support your mental and being supported to leaving care.

"I was worried, but I've been with my carer for 11 years she's like my second mum, and she said I can stay with her" Female, 17

"I have had so many carers and case workers I'm confused who to talk to?" Male, 16

"Case workers shouldn't just 'book-read' and make assumptions about me" Female, 16

"There needs to be more workers that are from here that understand us. Don't compare me to what happens to kids in Africa!" Male, 24

We're looking forward to hearing back from TFHC with the outcomes of the recommendations that were raised by all the young people that attended. Well done YC's on another successful Roundtable!!!

CREATE in Mparntwe (Alice Springs)

CREATE members have been busy with fun YAG's at Alice Springs Desert Song Festival, 'Paint the Gap' community mural where they got creative as well as having the opportunity for CREATE Young Consultants to advocate for young people at the Alice Springs Youth Summit. Chris partnered with the Polly Farmer Foundation to deliver multiple CREATE Your Future programs at a number of schools in town that our CREATE members attend which was well received. One comment a young person made that really made an impact on all was "I deserve the same chance to succeed as anyone else. I know if I had the same opportunities I would thrive" CREATE Member 17yrs

QLD ROUND UP

What's been happening?

Hey Australia greetings from back in time! Whilst you are all enjoying daylight savings, sunny Queensland stayed an hour back!

Child Protection Week

It has been an extremely crazy time up North, Child Protection week wrapped up with three massive events; Fancy dinner in Cairns featuring the Honorable MP Leanne Linnard, Fancy Masquerade ball in Brisbane and an exciting escape room virtually for all regions of Queensland. The most important part of this week was the CREATE young people (you!) that took part in our events. We had over 60 young people attend our events which was an amazing achievement so thank you very much.

Support to 21 Consultation

Queensland has been working hard on the support to 21 consultation, trying to get in touch with as many young people aged 18-25 so you can have your say on how young people in care would be best supported during that transitional phase of their lives. So far our face-to-face component has wrapped up featuring two think-tanks and four YAGs in the month of September alone. Thanks to all those young people who showed up and made their voice heard. Also special thank you to all those who did online surveys and interviews - no voice or idea is ever too much so please get in contact at our events to have your voices heard!

Meet Kristy!

We would like to introduce our newest Community Facilitator, Kristy Cope, bulking up the team in Brisbane. Kristy's first event will be the Sails event in Brisbane. So if sailing is for you as well as meeting awesome CREATE people get in touch with the Brisbane team and set SAILS for new adventures!

SA ROUND UP

What's been happening?

What we've been up to

We had a brilliant time with VIC for Wear it Purple Day; Wear it Purple Day is an annual LGBTIQ+ awareness day especially for young people, based in Australia. Supporters wear purple to celebrate diversity and young people from the LGBTIQ+ community.

We've had a few of our brilliant Young Consultants working with April Lawrie (Commissioner for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children and Young People) on her inquiry into the Child Placement Principle. We also managed to gain some new Young Consultants who finished their Speak Up Training and got to enjoy a day at Holey Moley to celebrate.

One of our previous Young Consultants opened up her own organisation, is now a CEO and she's an author. We're so proud of all the achievements that each young person makes and are so glad we get to watch you smash your goals!

We had a fun Youth Advisory Group where we did a cooking class together and got to share some delicious food. We attended the Child Protection Awards and one of our Community Facilitators Fabian McPhee received an award for promoting the voice of children and young people in out-of-home care! Well done Fabian.

The Children and Young People Safety Act (2017) is under review and we shared some of the feedback we've received from you all in hopes that the new Act will better reflect your wants and needs.

Meet Shona – the new Guardian for Children and Young People

Shona Reid is South Australia's new Guardian for Children and Young People. Shona and her team promote and advocate for the rights and best interests of children and young people in care throughout the state.

It is important to note that Shona is not your legal guardian while you are in care but is here to 'champion' your rights, to hear what you have to say and follow up on things that worry you about your time in care.

You can call us if you feel your rights are not being met and you are not being listened to. We will find out from you what is happening and if we can, we will look into it for you. Children and young people can call us on 1800 275 664 (freecall) during office hours. For more information about us visit our website: www.gcyp.sa.gov.au

Our Team

A big welcome to Lucy, our newest team member!

"If you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change" – Wayne Dyer

TAS ROUND UP

What's been happening?

Connection Event: Child Protection Week 2023

Young people in care around Tasmania were invited to get creative and send us an artwork that represented what a healthy and thriving community looks like to them. We received a lot of amazing images. We sent the images to a graphic designer, who worked some magic and put all the images together in one colourful artwork. The artwork was then placed at the entrance to Child Safety in Hobart, bringing some much needed vibrancy and colour! Out-of-home care agencies, Child Protection Workers and the Minister Roger Jaensch came together to launch the artwork and Young Consultant Nikita spoke about what it means for her to have a healthy and thriving community. Well done to all the young people who contributed!

Young Person quote

Check out the CREATE website for upcoming programs in Tasmania. Here is what one young person recently said about our programs:

"Whenever I come to these things, I know everyone has had a similar experience, so I feel a sense of familiarity and connection" – F 15

Youth Advisory Groups

At YAGs we have been talking about education, Child and Youth Safe Organisation Standards, and carers permissions. There has been some great movement in all of these areas. We utilised the info gathered in the YAG to write a submission for a new bill to parliament to make sure organisations are keeping children safe. Here is an awesome quote from a young person about making sure they are listened to:

"You can't ever know the full story without talking to all parties involved. I think regardless of if they're a young person or the overseeing body or the person who's reporting or whatever, everyone needs to be talked to if there's an issue. A lot of time you only ever really get the full story if you talk to that last person, especially young people, because young people already are struggling to have that much of a voice." Female, 18

VIC ROUND UP

What's been happening?

MYAG wins Child Protection Week award!

CREATE's Ministerial Youth Advisory Group (MYAG) won the Commission for Children and Young People's Child Protection Week Child and Youth Empowerment award. Since 2019, a group of young people aged 14 to 22 from the CREATE Foundation meet bi-monthly with the Minister for Child Protection and Family Services and senior DFFH representatives to provide advice on improvements to the out-of-home care system. Their expertise has been recognised for influencing policy makers and can shape the legislation, policies and programs that affect them. Congratulations team - Bree, Ben, Karen, Danni, Cat, Marcelle, Jacob, Dakota, Kiara, Harper, Jesse, Dee Dee, Alex, Tash, Hayley, Ella and Emily.

CREATE at the ZONE

CREATE celebrated child protection week at the Zone in Bendigo. Our first face-to-face big event since 2020! It was awesome fun, racing the go-karts, roller-skating and laser tag. A big shout out to Rapid Relief for cooking us a delicious BBQ. Our next big event is the end of year celebration at Gumbyre World.

Shout out CREATE award winner

CREATE would like to congratulate Kellie Addicoat from Mackillop Family Services for winning the CREATE Positive Impacts Award at the 2022 Protecting Children Awards. A young person nominated this award and a panel of young consultants selected the deserving winner. Part of Kellie's nomination read "I know that all the other kids who are or have been in her care and I have gotten the love of an exceptional woman". Keep up the great work Kellie!

Hour Of Power ( HOP)

In October, CREATE hosted the State election HOP. CREATE Young Consultants interviewed Politicians about what is important to them this election. Topics included; supporting young people to the age of 25, raising the age of criminality to 14 and improved mental health and wellbeing for children and young people in care.

WA ROUND UP

What's been happening?

Connection events

CREATE in WA recently had our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Connection at the beautiful Herdsman Lake Discovery Centre in Wembley. The weather and venue could not have been better if we tried! Neville Collard and his team facilitated a range of cultural events including a smoking ceremony, cultural talk, rock painting and mia mia building. We had Yorganop attend and facilitate a scavenger hunt of noongar animals. The Foster Carer Association also attended to volunteer on the day. A great day was had by all!

Engagement

CREATE in WA has been busy with engagement events lately. CREATE with YC Chris went to the University of Western Australia and did a presentation to social work students. YC Chris was able to speak about his experience being a child in state care. Chris and the CREATE team also ran a workshop with the students and explored a case study. CREATE and YC Kathleen attended the Department of Communities (Child Protection) Fremantle office for Child Protection week. Kathleen was able to speak about her experience in care and discuss her work with CREATE. State Manager Deb also spoke about CREATE's goals and purpose. Kathleen's speech was extremely powerful and had a lasting impact on the whole audience. Kathleen had a long line of Departmental staff lining up to thank her and ask her to speak at future conferences. Go Kathleen!

Youth Advisory Groups

CREATE ran a successful youth led YAG, run by YC Kathleen. We had a games night and discussed the young people's experience with their case worker. We ran this YAG at our newly painted CREATE office. We also had an Aboriginal Art YAG where we discussed cultural plans. Participants made beautiful shadow boxes to take home.
