Birds in Focus

An art and wellbeing program with Nature Play SA

What is it?

Birds in Focus is a five week wellbeing and art program run by Nature Play SA. It introduces birds in fun and creative ways that draw on our emotional similarities such as curious, creative and resilient. Attendees will hear stories, learn fascinating insights about birds and experiment with led pencil techniques, coloured pencils, and watercolour.

Where is it?

Wittunga House, Blackwood. The corner of Sherbourne Road and Shepherds Hill Road (put Sherbourne Road into your maps and you will see large bird banners).

When is it?

- ~~Session One: Monday 25 August, 4pm to 5pm~~
- Session Two: Monday 1 September, 4pm to 5pm
- Session Three: Monday 8 September, 4pm to 5pm
- Session Four: Monday 15 September, 4pm to 5pm
- Session Five: Monday 22 September, 4pm to 5pm

Yellow-tailed Black Cockatoo
Luca, 10 yrs old

Who is it for? Children and young people in care (6yrs +)

How much does it cost? The program is funded by Green Adelaide and therefore there is no charge.

Is their artistic skill needed?

No. It is an opportunity to experiment with art with a focus on birds. The session will be facilitated by an artist who can support any level of experience.

Is it a drop and go?

No, we encourage carers to make themselves at home in our beautiful 121 year old house. Tea, coffee and light nibbles will be provided. It is an opportunity to connect with others (you are also welcome to drift in and out of the session or sit in).

Where to RSVP - RSVP to CREATE Foundation at sa@create.org.au or phone the office on 8212 8898
